

Overview: Facilitative Leadership Evaluation – Department of Education

During this three-day workshop, participants learn the key skills, tools and mindset to become an effective Facilitative Leader. Participants learn to:

- Develop practical skills and tools for tapping the creativity, experience and commitment of the people with whom they work.
- Provide a forum to explore their challenges and aspirations as a leader.

Department of Education: Facilitative Leadership
May 16-18, 2001
Chicago, IL

Course Evaluation:

- What was your overall evaluation of workshop
(1-5 scale. 5 = Extremely useful).....4.6
- To what degree were the objectives of the workshop accomplished
(1-5 scale. 5 = Extremely useful).....4.7

Instructor evaluation:

- How would you describe the instructor's knowledge of the subject matter?
(1-5 scale. 5 = Extensive).....5.0
- How did you find the instructor's delivery style?
(1-5 scale. 5 = Extremely Effective).....4.8

General Feedback:

- "The workshop provided useful and relevant tools for facilitating. The workshop presenters allowed us to use our current work environment in the exercises, truly capitalizing on our time spent."
- "A meaningful path to facilitate cooperation and ensure success in reaching goals."
- "We learned some new tools that will help bring more people into decision-making."
- "Very informative – first training session which actually dealt with current job processes."