

Overview: Facilitative Leadership Evaluation – Department of Education

During this three-day workshop, participants learn the key skills, tools and mindset to become an effective Facilitative Leader. Participants learn to:

- Develop practical skills and tools for tapping the creativity, experience and commitment of the people with whom they work.
- Provide a forum to explore their challenges and aspirations as a leader.

Department of Education: Facilitative Leadership
June 6-8, 2001
San Francisco, CA

Course Evaluation:

- What was your overall evaluation of workshop
(1-5 scale. 5 = Extremely useful).....4.8
- To what degree were the objectives of the workshop accomplished
(1-5 scale. 5 = Extremely useful).....4.8

Instructor evaluation:

- How would you describe the instructor's knowledge of the subject matter?
(1-5 scale. 5 = Extensive).....4.7
- How did you find the instructor's delivery style?
(1-5 scale. 5 = Extremely Effective).....4.7

General Feedback:

- "I gained unexpected insights to factors that have limited and hindered my professional growth and performance."
- "I learned more about myself and how to deal with people and their feelings and how perception can hinder a process."
- "Stimulating and thought provoking practical tools that can be useful in work situations."
- "This is a very helpful class in applying this course to our daily work and hopefully in dealing with internal and external customers."